Work with the Shelter Manager, Lead Staff, other Family Engagement Specialists, and volunteers to ensure that the Women's Shelter is safe and welcoming to a broad diversity of women who are experiencing homelessness including people of all races, nationalities, languages, ages, abilities, sexual orientations, and gender identities.
2. Provide basic intake and orientation to all new center guests on a daily basis, including but not limited to reviewing Participant Agreements, drug and alcohol policies and emergency procedures.
3. Offer ongoing assistance to identify and secure appropriate services for all center guests.
4. Distribute food, bedding and other needed items to guests in a fair and equitable manner.
5. Assist staff, volunteers, and community groups and help them to have a positive volunteer experience.
6. Enforce the Women's Shelter guidelines.
7. Notify police, fire, and emergency personnel if warranted by events in the shelter.
8. Meet with supervisor and participate in department staff meetings and monthly all staff trainings as scheduling permits.
9. Assist each guest to obtain information about agencies that may be able to help them access housing or other services. These agencies include but are not limited to Human Solutions, IRCO, NAYA, JOIN and Impact Northwest. Some of these agencies may also provide a warm place that homeless families can access during the day.
10. Refer guests to other services provided by Human Solutions as appropriate, including but not limited to housing specialists, RentWell classes, other anti-

- poverty educational groups, domestic violence and employment support services.
11. Maintain accurate, complete, up-to-date daily documentation of families served and their basic demographic information. Submit paperwork in a timely manner.
 12. Provide regular fire walks, in and outside the building and record on the appropriate form
 13. Record each shifts activity in the shift log.
 14. Develop and maintain positive, professional, relationships with guests and volunteers
 15. Interact with guests, staff, and volunteers in a strengths-based, trauma informed manner at all times.
 16. Coordinate with other staff on shift to assure all items listed on Shift Expectations checklist are completed.
 17. Other duties as assigned.
